

Our Faith, Ethos and Values.

JCT welcomes people of all faiths and no faith.

We are a charity built on Christian foundations where every single person is celebrated as unique and with potential, but we do not proselytise. We believe that being kind is helping people out of their problematic situation/s. We help our clients to solve their problems with bespoke casework so they can restore their dignity, self-worth and self-love. We gather together to help our clients by joining them to communities that will help them survive and thrive. Joining communities together is vital to help clients change their lives; those communities include residents, businesses and other agencies that work in partnership with us at JCT. We bring our values of kindness, love, joy, justice and service to give our work great meaning, shining a light on the bridge that joins communities together.

Let your light shine before others that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in Heaven. Matthew 5:16

Our Values.

Kindness: We believe that being kind to people is of paramount importance. We demonstrate this ultimately by helping clients out of their problematic situation.

Love: We love our neighbours as ourselves, bringing an unconditional love to our work and to our clients within the boundaries of being compassionate, 'friendly professionals'.

Joy: We bring joy to the lives of our clients and to our workplaces.

Justice: We aim to bring justice for our clients so they can have what they are entitled to.

Service: We employ our servant hearts with the love of God to give great meaning to our work with clients, but we do not proselytise.
